COLAVITA®

WORLD SELECTION

Just like fine wine, extra virgin olive oils from locations around the world have their own characteristics - local flavor, aroma, and color. These differences are shaped by mineral content in the soil, climate, olive species as well as specific farming techniques used in various geographical areas. Colavita's "World Selection" olive oils are produced with olives from the Mediterranean, Argentina, Greece, Spain and California and provide the opportunity to appreciate unique characteristics and flavors typical of the specific countries of origin.

CALIFORNIAN

Our 100% Californian extra virgin olive oil is a balanced oil with floral notes and a fine, sweet almond finish.

The California Olive Oil Council has certified that it is made from 100% Californian olives.

COLAVITA®

ORGANIC

Colavita Organic Extra Virgin Olive Oil is produced from organic olives. As with all Colavita Extra Virgin Olive Oils, the Organic is first cold pressed within twenty-four hours of the harvest in a natural process that does not rely on thermal or chemical refinement. The result is the premium, unprocessed oil of the finest olives.

Colavita Extra Virgin Olive Oil is USDA Certified 100% Organic, indicating only organically produced olives have been used in its production.

BALSAMIC VINEGAR OF MODENA PGI

Colavita Balsamic Vinegar of Modena PGI (Protected Geographical Indication) is a certified product of Modena, where the tradition of balsamic vinegar has been perfected over generations. Colavita Balsamic Vinegar is a true product of Modena, Italy, and it is prepared according to stringent and traditional methods. Our balsamic vinegar is prepared by cooking the juice of Trebbiano grapes and then maturing them in cherry and walnut barrels. Over time, the vinegar reduces naturally. The result is a true “riserva” quality balsamic vinegar containing complex flavor notes such as berries, vanilla, and grapes.

CARNAROLI RICE

Carnaroli is a medium-grained rice grown in northern Italy's Po Valley. It is the premium traditional rice for making authentic risotto. It has a higher starch content than Arborio rice, therefore making it creamier while still retaining a firm texture and shape.
